News from Mrs Gogarty: Fun things to do Hi everybody and welcome to our second week of having some of you back at school. It was so lovely seeing some of you last week and hearing about what you've been up to. To those who are learning from home full-time, we haven't forgotten about you and invite you to continue to communicate with us by sending us your pictures of your work from home. You will now be known as the Home Explorers!

Check out and connect with the Little Angel Theatre and their story of how they are bringing puppet theatre out and encouraging everyone to make their own puppets, stories and shows.
