

Wednesday 29th April

My dog Russ liked to eat dog biscuits, go for long walks in the woods and used to sleep on anyone's bed who would let him! Next time you see Mrs Swaysland you could ask her what Poppy eats and where she sleeps.

English

Today I would like you to write a letter to Poppy. I think she is missing you all. Last time I was in school, she had fun with the children who were in, but she loves walking a mile with our class. Remember to start the letter with Dear Poppy and end it with Love (your name). You can tell her anything you would like to, but she may want to know how you are feeling today.
