

Hello Year 2,

Welcome to July! Today is International Joke Day. Here are some jokes for you...

What do you call a dinosaur that is sleeping? A dino-snore!

What did one toilet say to the other? You look a bit flushed!

What did the ocean say to the pirate? Nothing, it just waved.

Why did the crab blush? Because the seaweed.

Maths

We are now moving onto capacity and volume. Capacity is the amount of liquid a container can hold, and volume is the amount of space that is contained within an object. We are starting with comparing volume, try to complete part 1,2 and 3 in your books. Here is the link for today's video. <https://vimeo.com/432483778>

English

Today we are going to start your story, hopefully you were able to answer the questions yesterday and have a plan ready. I would like you to use the story mountain to write just your opening and build up.

Here are some good story starters...

Once upon a time, A long time ago, It was a beautiful day, I heard a loud bang, I looked at the treasure map, I walked up to the haunted house,

My Story Mountain

Use the Story Mountain to help you plan your story.

The Story Mountain helps you remember each stage.

Helpful hints

Try to use interesting sentence starters for each stage of your story.

Use connectives in the middle of sentences.

Check your story! Have you used the correct punctuation?

Remember to start a new line when someone new speaks.
